The Utah Winter Games Biathlon At Soldier Hollow

On Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 6-7, Soldier Hollow saw plenty of activity to help them gear up for the 2002 Winter Olympics.

The Utah Winter Games visited the Heber Valley with the biathlon event, with many participants showing up to compete in this growing event.

Heber City's Ian Harvey won the senior men's division with a time of 27.18.8. He hit only one target in both the prone and standing positions.

Gerald Robinson finished second and Barry Schmitt placed third.

Elizabeth Pike of Boulder, Colo., won the senior women's division with a time of 33.25.5.

For the junior men, Ian Odell won with a time of 33.17, and Scott Wohlford took second. Wohlford shot clean in the prone position.

Sara Studebaker of Boise, Idaho, won the junior women's race with a time of 29.48.4.

All-Stars Show Off Their Skills at Big Event

So, when these two met for the third time at the first annual Utah All-Star Wrestling Classic, it was bound to be a blood for blood competition.

The two fought like cats and dogs throughout the entire round, with both having to catch their breath at the end of the first period.

Starting the second period Maxwell made an escape to give him a 1-0 lead over Sweat. But to make up for it, Sweat took the 2-1 lead after getting a take-down. Maxwell tied the match after an escape in the final seconds of the second period.

During the third period, Sweat used both of his injury timeouts while having a 3-2 advantage. This set up the final move for Maxwell and in the end it determined the winner. Maxwell scored six points in the final seconds to take an 8-3 win over Sweat, and took a 2-1 lead in the rivalry battle.

After the match ended, almost half the crowd packed up and left, considering there were about as many Brighton fans there as there were Wasatch fans. Sweat is now 18-4 on the year.

In other matches, Wasatch's Luke Francis, who has been battling the flu bug for quite a while, came in and wrestled a tough Kip Spencer from Pleasant Grove in the 130-pound bout.

Francis led 2-0 after the first period, then 5-0 after the second. Spencer scored in the final period, but it wasn't enough and Francis won the match on a 5-2 decision. This win helped the Deseret News All-Stars (1A-3A) take a 12-9 lead over the Salt Lake Tribune All-Stars (4A-5A). Francis' record is now 18-2.

Jon Carlisle, who didn't place at state last year, came in and dominated Mountain View's Rob Raeder.

Carlisle led after the first period 2-0, but decided to end the match in the second. Carlisle pinned Raeder with 29.1 seconds left in the match, putting the Deseret News team down by one. Carlisle's current record is now 18-2.

Will Webster added another victory to his 17-1 record after he pinned West Jordan's Noah Fager in the second period with 29.1 seconds left.

Webster did have an 8-3 advantage at the end of the first period, and took a 10-4 lead before he pinned Fager for the win. His current record is now 18-1.

The Wasps were the only team to have more than two guys wrestling and proved to be the dominating team once again. Congratulations Judd, Luke, Jon, and Will.
